Principal’s Report

This is the last newsletter for the year and I would just like to thank all of our families for their support this year. Thanks also to the staff at the school. There have been many achievements by the students during the year and we look forward to achieving many more next year.

We have enjoyed this year very much and look forward to another year of new challenges next year!

Please have a safe and happy Christmas!

Leanne Hedt,
Relieving Principal

School Captain’s Report

Four days of school left until my last day of primary school, and then I am off to Yanco Agricultural High School.

Next Monday we are having our Presentation Night at school and then on Tuesday we have our end of year excursion to Star Bowling and Il Corso Restaurant. We can hardly wait!

Yesterday, Year 4 and 5 boys, presented their speeches to the class for school captain 2016. Everyone has voted and school captain will be announced at Presentation Night. Good luck boys!

On Monday we had Keighley Cameron come in for Christmas cooking. I wasn’t there, but heard it was awesome! Not many of the gingerbread houses made it home in one piece, but they still tasted great apparently.

Finally, we’d like to thank Fei very much for teaching us Mandarin and about China this term. We have learnt lots and it’s been really fun.

Archie Ray,
School Captain
